

MY GRANDPA'S WATCH

Lyrics & Music by Steve Smith (Kermit Stephen Smith)
& Tom Simpson (Elwood T. Simpson Jr.)

Since yesterday I wear the watch my Grandpa always wore
I don't suppose that where he's gone, he'll much need it any more
'Cause if they've got trains in heaven, I'm sure they run on time
So he's left it here since yesterday, my Grandpa's watch is mine

My Grandpa was a simple man, he never drank or swore
He never harmed a living thing, no one could love life more
And even though his watch don't run, I hope you understand
That I wear it to remind me, I should be that kind of man

Could you tell me, please, today, is the 5:03 on time?
We used to sit and watch her, and he'd say "that train was mine"
My Grandpa used to drive her, he went 30 years on time
So I set the watch at 5:03, now he'll always be on time

Now that my Grandpa's watch is mine
