

Just a Little Caring

Words & Music by: Steve Smith (Kermit Stephen Smith) & Tom Simpson (Elwood T Simpson Jr.)

Fancy paintings on the wall, don't mean that much at all
When that bed upstairs is all that we've been sharing
And that child I wanted so, never came because I know
That he hasn't any extra time for caring

He's working night and day
He says for the pay
To build our life and a home
But things got out of hand
And he don't understand
That these fancy clothes I'm wearing
Will never take the place
Of just a little caring

It's been ten long years today, but five since I heard him say
Three words I knew that came from his heart
Now we've got the things we planned, but on the other hand
We've lost what we had when we started

He's working night and day
He says for the pay
To build our life and a home
But things got out of hand
And he don't understand
That these fancy clothes I'm wearing
Will never take the place
Of just a little caring
