

I'm the Receiver

Words & Music by: Steve Smith (Kermit Stephen Smith) ASCAP

Receiving is a natural thing
We all know how to do
And giving is as natural to you Lord
The problem comes that when we get
We take it fast and then forget
To honor, praise, and glorify you more

Chorus

So I'm walking in your sunshine, singing hallelujah
Lifting my joyful praises up to you
Thanking the Father 'cause He made you my Lord and Savior
Standing on faith 'cause I'm a believer
You are the Giver and I'm the receiver of Loving healing, grace, peace and joy

I've been taking each new day one step at a time
So I can notice all that You have done
You've blessed me with a memory
And I will use it faithfully
So I can thank you for each one by one
